The Sky Ranch Foundation notes that there are over 100,000 young people who have been sent to residential placement programs nationwide. Many states are cutting resources for helping these young people, raising the risk many will fail to correct their behavior and present even more serious danger to society and themselves once they become adults.

A $56,000 contribution has already been received and has been earmarked to help qualified programs in California.

This gift was made possible thanks to recommendation by principals of Magave Tequila, a new brand already making a big impact on Tequila enthusiasts. Read more here...

BEST OF SHOW, CHINACO REPOSADO, 2010

(Out of 153 Brands Tasted!)

Chinaco Blanco Tequila speaks pure agave. It speaks of its earthy aromas. Dry but rich and full-bodied, its recalls a freshly planted garden just after the first rain. This style is carried meticulously through the Reposado and Anejo expressions, an art form performed by generations of the Gonzalez family.

From Master Distiller Germán González Gorrochotegui

The 1st Barrel of t1-Tequila Uno's 'Build a Barrel Program' was donated and dedicated at the 2009 Spirits of Mexico Festival for the Sky Ranch Foundation

We visited Germán's distillery and selected the barrel in which this very special Reposado has rested. Thanks to our bidders, 8 (out of 30) six-bottle cases remain available.
